

SOCIETY

THESE few weeks before Lent begins smart society will be so much entertaining, and several large charity functions will take place which will be a brilliant close to one of the most delightful seasons Richmond society has known for many years. The debutante balls have been unusually numerous and handsomer than those of the past season, and the young girls presented this winter have lived up to Richmond's long-remembered reputation for "fair women." In these entertainments of late February the thoughts turn most naturally to things Colonial. In the smaller affairs the minutest is danced by the little folks, and has been done exactly as it was in the times were most charming. In the big Charity Ball to be danced by Richmond's elite on February 22, the opening dance will be the minuet, led by Mrs. Frank McCarty with Palmer Leigh. The costumes for this ball will be the most elaborate, particularly those of the "stately folk" of the minuet. And then Easter week "Pinafore" is to be sung, under the direction of the Alumnae Association of Miss Virginia Randolph Elliott's school, and all society, but more especially the older people, are looking forward to the revival of one of the oldest and most loved operas of the past generation. After "Pinafore," the formal and large affairs of this season will be at an end, and the informal social life of the lovely, lazy spring days will begin.

Arrivals for This Week.
Mrs. Frederick W. Scott has sent out invitations for a dinner to be given at her home on West Franklin Street, complimentary to Misses Isabella Street and Zaida Branch, two debutantes of this winter.

Mrs. Jordan Leake will be hostess at luncheon at the Commonwealth Club next Thursday at 2 o'clock in honor of Miss Mabel Cunningham. Mrs. Gayton Wise will also entertain at luncheon this week.

At the Woman's Club.
Mrs. Thomas Gladding, of New York, a prominent member of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association, will speak at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Gladding was formerly Miss Emily Kelly Price, the most popular speaker at the Silver Day and Asheville student conferences, and her name was chosen with the college women of all the leading institutions. She has all the grace of a Southern woman, and the power of an orator, and is a leading member of that circle of Christian men and women of New York City who are the promoters of the great philanthropic and Christian enterprises of the day, and the members of the Woman's Club have an unusual privilege in store for them to-morrow afternoon.

Another interesting event at the Woman's Club this week will be the appearance on Wednesday evening of the widely known author and lecturer, Dr. Scamman McManus. He will give selected from his own works and will also relate an Irish folk-tale story.

On Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock the February card tournament will be played, with compasses, which will be the usual rules about inviting gentlemen partners and registering tables will apply.

Returned to Richmond.
Misses Alice and Emma Netherland have returned to their apartments at 265 East Grace Street, after spending several months visiting friends in Berkeley, Calif. Mrs. Cecil Tucker, wife of the postmaster-general of Hamilton, Bermuda, entertained for the Misses Netherland at her handsome residence in that place, and they were guests of honor at several parties given by Mrs. Rose Masters. The Misses Netherland were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. John Bernhard, of Newark, N. J., during their stay in her home. Mrs. Sara Hibbler, of New York, also was hostess of luncheon in their honor.

Concerning Miss Miller.
Miss Corinne Miller, of Baltimore, who was the guest of Miss Emma Gray White, on West Franklin Street, for a week early in January, is spending the week in Washington as the house guest of Miss Valerie Paddelford, at Stoneleigh Court. Miss Miller was in the receiving line at the handsome reception given by Mr. and Mrs. White to present their daughter to Richmond society.

Holiday Party.
Little Miss Dorothy Peters Young, of 2122 Grove Avenue, entertained most charmingly at a party for little folks to celebrate her eighth birthday on last Thursday afternoon from 1 until 6 o'clock. The decorations were in pink roses and pink tulips, with ferns, and the centerpiece was a lovely birthday cake with lighted candles. The guests were Misses Geraldine and Emma Adams, Elizabeth Clark, Ann Benson, Miss Shropshire, Miss Dunn, Dorothy Robins, Elizabeth Lawrence, Preston Walsh and Dudley Robins, Willford Goodwin, Jr., Charles Edwards, Jr., Walter Craigie and Robert and Edward Evans.

Guests of Mrs. Mosby.
Miss Eliza McGeer, of Atlantic City, and Mrs. F. W. N. Mosby, of Philadelphia, arrived Friday evening to be guests of Mrs. Julius B. Mosby, 1850 Allen Avenue and Grace Street. Mrs. Mosby is remembered by many Richmond friends who met her as the attractive Miss Kate Gould when she visited Mrs. Mosby on several occasions before her marriage.

Concerning "Pinafore."
The chorus and cast of "Pinafore," which will be sung at the Academy of Music on Monday and Tuesday of Easter week, is practically completed and will be announced shortly. Miss Kitty Lancaster, president of the Alumnae Association, is the general chairman, and the chairman of the various committees are as follows:

Costumes and scenery. Mrs. Hiram M. Smith and Miss Emma Gray White; patronesses. Mrs. Eleanor Lindsey and Miss Bertie Trigg; advertisements. Miss Caroline Amistead; tickets. Miss Mattie Purcell and Miss Gerald Neal; programs. Miss Martha Robinson, Miss Lettie Woodward, Miss Dorothy Christman and Miss Nora Randolph; treasurer. Miss Ella Buel.

An attractive candy booth will be in charge of Miss Eleanor Lindsey, and programs will be distributed by several young girls. Many charming theatrical parties are planned for the occasion.

Burial to be at Home.
Mrs. J. H. Burr, of 204 Monument Avenue, will be at home on Wednesday afternoon from 5 until 7 o'clock, in honor of Miss Edna Dunham, of New York, and Miss Peck, of Wilmington, N. C. Miss Dunham will be much entertained by the social circles when she comes to Richmond this week to sing at the Jefferson Auditorium.

O'Connell-Gogan.
Mrs. Margaret Gogan, of 1025 Floyd Avenue, announces the marriage of her daughter, Annie Elizabeth, to Frank O'Connell, of Covington, Ky., February 6, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington, D. C.

Card Party.
Misses Bessie and Mattie Beale entertained their friends at a card party last Thursday evening. The parlors were decorated in palms, ferns and cut flowers. The prize was won by Miss Laura Amistead, and the runner-up by Guy Beale. Misses Floy Hechler and Zelle Gentry presided over the punch bowl. Among those present were:

Misses Susie Ruffin, Floy Hechler, Ruby Parry, Fannie Hechler, Laura Amistead, Ann Sale, Eva Campbell, Ruby Brauer, Virginia Sale, Susie Alexander, Mozelle Robins, Mamie Bay, Miss Zelle Gentry, Gladys Beale, Mrs. Spruill, of London, Eng.; Mrs. Charles H. Beale, of V. Lindsey, Fred Craig, Garland Fitzgerald, E. Judson Gilman, Robert Ladd, of Beale's, H. H. Knight, James and George Spruill, of London, Eng.; Guy Beale, John Valentine, Joseph Dorsett, C. H. Beale.

Song Recital.
Another attractive concert that will occupy society this week will be given Friday evening, February 17, at 8:30 o'clock, in the parlors of the Woman's Club, for the Children's Ward of the Memorial Hospital. The list of patronesses will include Mesdames W. W. Moore, T. C. Johnson, Grover Baughman, Mrs. Moore, Anderson, St. George Grinnam, H. H. Levy, C. A. Blanton, Arthur Miller, William Massey, Philip Johnson, E. M. Headley, Aubrey Belpwate, De Soto Fitzgerald, Garrett Wall, R. M. Blank.

Founders' Day Celebration.
On Wednesday, February 15, at 12 noon, Founders' Day will be celebrated at the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital. Dr. Meade Clark will preside and Dr. Callish will read. Dr. James Y. Fair will address the address on this occasion, and Rev. Ernest Stevens will offer prayer. Dr. Ryland Knight will pronounce the benediction. At the reception which follows the program Mrs. D. T. Williams, assisted by a number of prominent society women, will serve in the dining room. Mrs. Williams is chairman of the reception committee. All interested in this hospital are cordially invited to attend these exercises.

Carpenter-Goodwin.
A fashionable wedding was celebrated in City Hall, Thursday night, in the home of Mrs. E. A. Speed, sister of the bride, when Miss Edith S. Goodwin, of Louisa county, was united in marriage to Walter Carpenter, Jr., of Roanoke. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Green, many of the guests were from Richmond, Roanoke, Lynchburg and from Maryland and West Virginia.

The bride was given away by her brother, John W. Goodwin, of Huntington. Miss Jennie Speed was the bridesmaid. Miss Elsie Phillips, of Richmond, and Miss May E. Carpenter, of Roanoke, were bridesmaids. The bridesmaids were: Frances B. Scott, Blankenship, A. G. Mills, Annie Louise Reinhardt and Salie Anderson.

In and Out of Town.
Mrs. H. Snowden Marshall, of New York, will spend this week as the guest of Mrs. Otto Theodore Hess, on Floyd Avenue.

Mrs. J. M. Wyatt, of 1504 Park Avenue, left last Wednesday for Florida, where she will remain for some time.

Miss Kathleen Bruce, of this city, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Kinsolving, in Baltimore.

Miss Ruby Peay will return to Richmond to-day, after spending some time with friends in Williamsburg.

C. I. Glana, of Brown Station, N. Y., who has been visiting here, is now the guest of friends in Massachusetts.

Marvin Roberts, of Norwood, Va., is the guest of friends in this city for some time.

Miss Ora Robertson is spending some time in Lunenburg as the guest of Mrs. Ben Satterfield.

C. W. Watkins has returned to the city, after spending a few days in Charlottesville.

Miss Margaret Brannan, of Norfolk, is visiting Miss McDonough, at her home in this city.

Miss M. O. Clements, of this city, is spending a few weeks as the guest of relatives in Scottsville.

Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Lipscomb, of enship, R. Carter Scott, T. H. Elliott, E. Victor Williams, William Hodges Mann, M. T. Rucker, H. B. Sanford, J. C. Walton, C. R. Robins, J. S. Horsley, Fred W. Scott, S. W. Travers, Emmon Williams, Misses Blanche Curling, Evelyn Stiles, Mary Williams, Helen Stevens, Mary Moulton, Ross Van Vort, Misses James A. Grigg, W. A. Shepherd, Elmore Hotchkiss, Arthur Ripley, Walter Morton, Henry L. Cabell, Ashton Starke, J. Taylor Ellyson, D. C. Richardson, W. W. Sale, Thomas E. McAdams, Robert Thornton, William Talley, J. G. Farland, George Gibson, W. J. Payne, Douglas Vanderhoof, William Matthews, Thomas C. Gordon, Richard Gwatney, George Ben Johnston, D. Meade Mann, Arthur Serfvenor, E. W. Gee, E. L. Dennis, Henry Hatwood, T. D. Lipscomb, W. A. Gills, F. M. Headey, J. P. Davidson, Manfred Call, Jr., M. T. Emmet, B. M. Gwatney, Lewis Williams, Ellis Middleton, J. K. Judah, Sam Cohen, M. L. Hoffheimer, Stuart Stringfellow, Eppa Hunton, Jr., B. R. Tucker.

An unusually attractive program has been arranged, and some of the most prominent people in musical circles of this city will take part.

Miss Collier Returns to New Jersey.
Miss Claudia Collier, of Montclair, N. J., who has been spending the winter months with her cousin, Miss Marie Koerner, of this city, will return to her home on Tuesday, accompanied by Miss Koerner.

Miss Houston to Lecture.
On Thursday morning, at the Art Club of Richmond, 521 West Grace Street, Miss Nora Houston will conduct a class for the study of the work and lives of the great painters. The class has been organized especially for the non-working members of the club, and all members are invited. The classes will continue throughout the session.

Ten Wednesday Afternoon.
From 5 to 7 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the Junior Hollywood Memorial Association will give a very attractive tea in Lee Camp Hall. Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, honorary president, and Mrs. Sidney Johnston Dudley, president of the organization, will receive the guests. They will be assisted by Mrs. William Hodges Mann and the presidents of the various Confederate associations. Music will be under the direction of Mrs. P. J. Archer and the program will be chiefly Confederate airs. The members of the organization will serve and Miss Annie Gray is chairman of the affair.

In South Carolina.
Mrs. L. W. C. Hines is spending some time visiting friends in Aiken, S. C. Later on Mrs. Hines expects to go to Atlanta, Ga., where she will be the guest of Mrs. S. Wynton Bennett at her home, on Peachtree Street.

James-Garnett.
A marriage of much interest to society here was that of Miss Mary Roy Garnett, daughter of Miss H. Garnett, to Mate F. James, of this city, which took place at the bride's home, 194 South First Street, on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Father Kaup officiating. There were no attendants, and the ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. James will spend their honeymoon in the North, and after March the 1st will be at home at 1295 Park Avenue.

Luncheon for Miss Lorraine.
Last Wednesday morning the friends of Miss Helen Lorraine gave a luncheon in her home at the Art Club of Richmond. Miss Lorraine has gone to New York for a visit of six weeks.

Quarterly Meeting of Art Club.
The quarterly meeting of the Art Club of Richmond, which was postponed from February 7th to February 11th, will be held on Tuesday afternoon at the clubhouse, 521 West Grace Street, at 4:30 o'clock. After the business meeting is adjourned Mrs. Norman V. Randolph will talk on the Richmond of sixty-one to sixty-five and the Richmond of nineteen and eleven.

Fete Postponed.
The Valentine fete at Chisholm School, which was to have been held on Friday, February 10, has been postponed until Friday of this week, February 17.

Children's Wash Dresses.
We bought at great savings three hundred (300) Children's Wash Dresses from one of the best New York manufacturers. Every one daintily made and of nice quality workmanship.

Mothers will do well to be here early and partake of these unusual values. Note these bargains:
AT 62c we are offering Children's Long Waist Dresses, of blue and pink checked gingham, box plaited, with white piping, elbow sleeves, sizes 3 to 6 years.

AT 79c Dainty Long Waist Dresses of chambray, in tan, white and blue, with checked piping, some with Dutch neck and elbow sleeves, sizes 3 to 6 years.

AT 98c you will find a large collection in white with red, navy, tan and black checks, trimmed with bands and folds of contrasting colors, high or low neck, elbow sleeves, sizes 3 to 6 years.

Any Winter Suit in Stock, No Restrictions, Nothing Reserved That Sold Up to $45.00; to $11.98 Clear Out To-Morrow

Every wanted material in the collection of imported chiffon broadcloth, basket weaves, zibelines, velvets and mannish mixtures.

Stanton, Va., are visiting relatives in Richmond for some time.

Walter P. Massey, of Amherst, Va., is spending a week with friends in this city.

Burkeville Social News
[Special to The Times Dispatch.]
Burkeville, Va., February 11.—J. H. Watson and family left on Saturday afternoon for their new home in Boydton.

The Wednesday Night Card Club met
with Miss Helen Leath. The Misses Lockwood and Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bostick and Mr. Coates, the principal of the High School here, were guests of the evening. Refreshments were served after an interesting game of bridge.

The Bible class met with Mrs. F. V. Fowlkes Friday evening.
The Book Club met with Mrs. W. B. Farrar on Thursday afternoon. After an amusing "contest," a delicious buffet luncheon was served. The retiring president of the club, Mrs. Ernest Boswell, was presented with a brass candlestick, as a token of the club's appreciation.

Mrs. G. C. Campbell has left for Richmond and Baltimore to attend the "missionary jubilee."
Mrs. Hargrave, of Chatham, is visiting Mrs. F. V. Fowlkes.

Pinehurst Social News
[Special to The Times Dispatch.]
Pinehurst, N. C., February 11.—High up in swinging pine trees, the mockingbird thus early sings of spring as one perfect day after another delights the great company of midseason visitors gathered here; a colony occupied with varied diversions, indoors and out.

Many are enjoying rides, drives and auto spins to nearby points, the log cabin "Lift-the-Latch" team room at Pinebluff, being a popular rendezvous. Here the younger set rode by moonlight early in the week, the group including R. S. Durstine, W. R. Simons, H. T. Curtis and Misses Ethel Cheek, of Kansas City, and Misses Lewis, of Philadelphia; Eleanor Boyd and Marion Waters, of Boston, and Ruby Sewall, of New York City. Another novel enjoyment by much the same party was a supper and evening of freight songs and story-telling at the Gun Club Log Cabin. The usual hops at the Carolina are generally enjoyed, and the new "auction bridge" is quite the fad, while hardly a day is without its teas or luncheons or an evening when it is entertained by informal dinners. Plans for the immediate future include the annual St. Valentine's collation at the

with Miss Helen Leath. The Misses Lockwood and Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bostick and Mr. Coates, the principal of the High School here, were guests of the evening. Refreshments were served after an interesting game of bridge.

THIS SHAMPOO HELPS TO DRY THE HAIR
"It may sound paradoxical to say that shampooing helps dry the hair," writes Mae Martyn, in the Los Angeles Record, "but it is a fact that women using canthrox in cleansing the hair and scalp and their tresses dry quicker than when shampoo mixtures are used. Aside from this, it leaves the scalp in a vigorous condition and gives the hair its natural glossy appearance."

"Next time you wash your head try this simple recipe: Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a teacup of hot water. Pour on the head and rub briskly until the scalp is thoroughly massaged, then rinse well."

"Canthrox costs but a trifle, but the only certain way to get it pure is to buy an original package."

Dunlop Flour
The Flour With A Difference
The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

Kaufmann & Co

Awakening of Spring

FIRST
CALL

Our Neckwear Department is showing a charming collection of Dainty Neck Fixings for spring that is sure to please every taste.

Imported Ladies' Linen Embroidered Collars; special, 25c.

Barrettes, 19c

To-morrow we offer a choice collection of 25c Barrettes, newest designs in shell and amber; special, 19c.

WE are now prepared to meet the wants of Early Spring Shoppers. The most approved fashion thoughts of the best designers are expressed in the many new advance models now on sale, and to make our Debut more eventful, you will find our prices attractively low.

AT $15.00 we are offering forty Attractive Suits, straight line figures, styles that will predominate in spring; garments that will later cost $20.00. Materials of shepherd check, serge and hairline materials; some trimmed with satin reverse and collar; new model skirts.

Dainty Lingerie Dresses, $3.98-$5.98

Just thirty in the collection, and so charming that they won't last very long at the above prices. Every one daintily trimmed in Cluny, Val, and lace medallions and of nice soft clingy lingerie, and suitable for house and evening wear.

AT $25.00 A charming collection of models to suit every wanted taste, in materials of homespun, checks, serges, mostly all are strictly tailored and of fine quality workmanship. As an early season inducement we offer these Suits at the above price.

Children's Wash Dresses at Saving Prices

We bought at great savings three hundred (300) Children's Wash Dresses from one of the best New York manufacturers. Every one daintily made and of nice quality workmanship.

Mothers will do well to be here early and partake of these unusual values. Note these bargains:

AT 62c we are offering Children's Long Waist Dresses, of blue and pink checked gingham, box plaited, with white piping, elbow sleeves, sizes 3 to 6 years.

AT 79c Dainty Long Waist Dresses of chambray, in tan, white and blue, with checked piping, some with Dutch neck and elbow sleeves, sizes 3 to 6 years.

AT 98c you will find a large collection in white with red, navy, tan and black checks, trimmed with bands and folds of contrasting colors, high or low neck, elbow sleeves, sizes 3 to 6 years.

Any Winter Suit in Stock, No Restrictions, Nothing Reserved That Sold Up to $45.00; to $11.98 Clear Out To-Morrow

Every wanted material in the collection of imported chiffon broadcloth, basket weaves, zibelines, velvets and mannish mixtures.

Every Coat in Stock That Sold Up to $35, to Clear Out To-Morrow at the Low Price of $8.75

Materials of plush, broadcloth, serges, silk, moire, polo cloth, shepherd check and stylish mixtures. Fine quality lining.

Stanton, Va., are visiting relatives in Richmond for some time.

Walter P. Massey, of Amherst, Va., is spending a week with friends in this city.

Burkeville Social News
[Special to The Times Dispatch.]
Burkeville, Va., February 11.—J. H. Watson and family left on Saturday afternoon for their new home in Boydton.

The Wednesday Night Card Club met
with Miss Helen Leath. The Misses Lockwood and Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bostick and Mr. Coates, the principal of the High School here, were guests of the evening. Refreshments were served after an interesting game of bridge.

The Bible class met with Mrs. F. V. Fowlkes Friday evening.
The Book Club met with Mrs. W. B. Farrar on Thursday afternoon. After an amusing "contest," a delicious buffet luncheon was served. The retiring president of the club, Mrs. Ernest Boswell, was presented with a brass candlestick, as a token of the club's appreciation.

Mrs. G. C. Campbell has left for Richmond and Baltimore to attend the "missionary jubilee."
Mrs. Hargrave, of Chatham, is visiting Mrs. F. V. Fowlkes.

Pinehurst Social News
[Special to The Times Dispatch.]
Pinehurst, N. C., February 11.—High up in swinging pine trees, the mockingbird thus early sings of spring as one perfect day after another delights the great company of midseason visitors gathered here; a colony occupied with varied diversions, indoors and out.

Many are enjoying rides, drives and auto spins to nearby points, the log cabin "Lift-the-Latch" team room at Pinebluff, being a popular rendezvous. Here the younger set rode by moonlight early in the week, the group including R. S. Durstine, W. R. Simons, H. T. Curtis and Misses Ethel Cheek, of Kansas City, and Misses Lewis, of Philadelphia; Eleanor Boyd and Marion Waters, of Boston, and Ruby Sewall, of New York City. Another novel enjoyment by much the same party was a supper and evening of freight songs and story-telling at the Gun Club Log Cabin. The usual hops at the Carolina are generally enjoyed, and the new "auction bridge" is quite the fad, while hardly a day is without its teas or luncheons or an evening when it is entertained by informal dinners. Plans for the immediate future include the annual St. Valentine's collation at the

with Miss Helen Leath. The Misses Lockwood and Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bostick and Mr. Coates, the principal of the High School here, were guests of the evening. Refreshments were served after an interesting game of bridge.

THIS SHAMPOO HELPS TO DRY THE HAIR
"It may sound paradoxical to say that shampooing helps dry the hair," writes Mae Martyn, in the Los Angeles Record, "but it is a fact that women using canthrox in cleansing the hair and scalp and their tresses dry quicker than when shampoo mixtures are used. Aside from this, it leaves the scalp in a vigorous condition and gives the hair its natural glossy appearance."

"Next time you wash your head try this simple recipe: Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a teacup of hot water. Pour on the head and rub briskly until the scalp is thoroughly massaged, then rinse well."

"Canthrox costs but a trifle, but the only certain way to get it pure is to buy an original package."

Dunlop Flour
The Flour With A Difference
The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

Send Flowers

As a St. Valentine's remembrance they are sure to delight. A dainty corsage or exquisite cut flowers will carry your message gracefully and plead your case eloquently. The language of flowers goes straight to the heart.

Special Corsages

300 Violets, with Gardenia.....$2.25
300 Violets, with Orchid.....$3.25

Phone your order Now

Telephone Madison 630 109 East Broad Street

Facilities for delivering flowers anywhere in the United States, same day.